Want to read some passages in A Course in Miracles?

Here are some quotes from A Course in Miracles that touch on the subject of this lesson. You can read the section of the Course in which they appear. (Do keep in mind that it may be challenging to read these sections without reading the sections that come before them. A Course in Miracles is written in such a way that the concepts build upon each other as you go along.) Remember T is for the Text, W is for the workbook, and M is for the Teacher's Manual. The text, workbook, and teacher's manual are all in one book. (They used to be 3 separate books) In case you have different editions of the book, when I use a quote from the Text, I will also reference what chapter and section the quote appears in.

- "Each decision that you make is one between a grievance and a miracle. Each grievance stands like a dark shield of hate before the miracle it would conceal. And as you raise it up before your eyes, you will not see the miracle beyond. Yet all the while it waits for you in light, but you behold your grievances instead." P.139(W) Lesson 78
- "Think of this awhile: The world you see does nothing. It has no effects at all. It merely represents your thoughts. And it will change entirely as you elect to change your mind, and choose the joy of God as what you really want." P.362(W) Lesson 190
- "You think you hold against your brother what he has done to you. But what you really blame him for is what you did to him. It is not his past but yours you hold against him. And you lack faith in him because of what you were." p.369(T) Chapter 17, Section VII
- "Those who see themselves as whole make no demands"p.56(W) Lesson 37
